When does NVAVA Meet?

NVAVA meets on the third Thursday of alternating months beginning in July. Meetings explore topics relevant to volunteer administration and offer great networking opportunities for members representing over 40 organizations. In May, the annual meeting celebrates recipients of the Sandra Lee Fitch Award and New Administrator of the Year Award.

Who can Join NVAVA?

Membership is open to any individual or organization engaging volunteers or concerned with the administration of volunteers. Non-members may attend a meeting for a $15 fee, which may be applied towards membership.

How can I Join NVAVA?

The membership year begins July 1st and ends June 30th. Follow these simple steps to become an NVAVA member:

1. Choose from 2 types of membership — Individual or Organizational;
2. Download and complete the membership application from our website.
3. Place individual/organization name on the check's memo line. Mail your payment and application to: NVAVA, P.O. Box 92; Fairfax, VA 22038.
