

MANAGEMENT 2011

Advanced Volunteer Management Training with Rick Lynch

Supervision, Retention, and Emerging Trends in Volunteerism

Register Online

http://bit.ly/Management_2011

Only $35 before June 30th
$45 after June 30th

When: Thursday, July 22, 2010

Registration opens at 9:30 am with coffee and networking
Program starts at 10:00 am
Program ends at 4:00 pm
Continental breakfast & lunch included

Where: Arlington Central Library

1015 N. Quincy St, Arlington VA 22201

Metro Accessible—Short walk from Ballston Station on the Orange Line

Free Parking for first 40 registrants

Earn 6 Professional Development Units.
For more details, visit www.CVAcert.org or call 804-794-8689.

Rick Lynch is the co-author of the book Volunteer Management, the best selling book in its field in the United States. Mr. Lynch is a Seattle-based management consultant who specializes in issues facing not-for-profit organizations. As a trainer, author, and coach, he helps managers create productive work places for both paid and unpaid staff. He has done volunteer management work shops in the United States, Canada, Australia, Britain, Ireland, Russia and Singapore. Each year, Mr. Lynch speaks at approximately 100 workshops, conventions and conferences throughout the world on topics related to volunteer management and leadership effectiveness.

Learn more at: <http://www.ricklynchassociates.com/>

